

SEEKING DAY OF SERVICE APPLICATIONS

Each Leadership Dutchess class annually participates in a Day of Service to a community based service organization. Local non-profit organizations that would benefit are encouraged to fill out the application below.

The recipient organization will receive:

- * A day of service from over 25 adult participants, from 7:30 am until 4:00 pm, generally on a Saturday in April
- * A budget of up to $2,500 to be used for materials and supplies related to the project
 - * Publicity and recognition throughout the program year

Some examples of potential projects:

- * Painting and renovations to improve the safety, usefulness and appearance of facilities
- * Adaptive reuse of space or energy efficiency improvements
- * Enhance outdoor recreational spaces, such as for youth, seniors, etc.

Preference will be given to organizations that:

- * Bring multiple partners to the project, leverage funds such as matching dollars, and/or attract other volunteers to maximize the project's benefits
 - * Articulate the project's uniqueness and positive impact within your organization

JOIN YOUTH LEADERSHIP

The New YOUTH LEADERSHIP Program

Youth Leadership is an innovative, two year leadership development program designed to develop the academic, social and life skills of area sophomores and juniors and focuses on giving these students out-of-the classroom leadership experiences.
